

The San Diego County Long-Term Recovery Committee has agreed to meet and work together to address the needs of residents of San Diego County, California in response to the 2007 Wild Fire. We will strive to:

- Provide coordinated management of the long-term recovery to the disaster.
- Provide additional long-term assistance to individuals affected by the disaster who do not have adequate personal resources for basic needs as result of the disaster.
- Advocate for ongoing preparedness within the faith community and cooperation with governmental and voluntary agencies active in disaster.

The first meeting of the LTR Committee will be December 6, 2007. It will meet at the Kroc Corps Community Center at 10AM in the Community Room.

(Please note the room location change from where we last met.)

The Kroc Center, 6845 University Ave, SD, CA 92115

Please attend this meeting if your organization plans to take part in the LTR process.
